(See Ch. X, Army appropriation act of July 9, 1918; Public, No. 193, 65th Cong.) Art. 51. Judge Advocate General To Receive Records--Court Records Are Public.--The Judge Advocate General of the Army shall receive and file the record of the proceedings of all general courts, courts of inquiry, and military commissions, and shall immediately transmit to the Court of Military Appeals the record of all proceedings which carry sentences involving death, dismissal, or dishonorable discharge or confinement for a period of more than six months. The records of and reports upon the proceedings of all courts and military commissions, wherever filed, shall be public records and subject as such to public examination. COMMENT.--The star-chamber methods characteristic of existing court-martial practice are incompatible with justice and fundamental principles of our Government. Courtmartial records are declared to be public records, accessible as such to the public. The power of revision conferred by existing law upon the Judge Advocate General which the department insists is of no substantial import has been omitted, and a substantial power of review and revision conferred upon the Court of Military Appeals. Art. 52. Revision By Court Of Military ApPeals.--There is hereby created...
