Excerpt: . . . where it is supposed to have symbolized future life. It was also sometimes called the key of the Nile. In Persia, as early as 850 B. C, a cross similar to the Greek cross was worn by the king as an act of worship to his God; and the cross and crescent were combined on Oriental standards many centuries before the Christian era. The lesson is to be upon the the Greek cross. Show the children pictures of the Greek cross and tell the story of this cross in a way that will lead them to think of it in its decorative use. Let the children lay I the cross with their tablets, or cut it from manila paper. Ask them to find this cross in wall decorations, borders, etc. , --to bring articles decorated with this figure, or pictures showing its...
